Your hero is eager to embark on adventures and share his discoveries with you if given the green light. To access the adventure tab, open your hero's window or utilize the special icon beside his picture. Upon opening the adventure tab, you'll see an option to complete adventures using points. Don't worry if you don't have a substantial amount; your reserve will increase over time, and a counter will indicate when the next point is available. Once you've gathered enough points, select between the short adventure and the long adventure by clicking on the associated green button. Will begin attacks on your village, but can be avoided if defeated before landing. Robber Hideouts contain stolen goods and resources, protected by troops, which amount varies depending on player strength, resource production, and population size. As account grows, so do Robber Hideouts. Initial game start, Gov sees I and II hideouts, frequency and size change over time. More frequent at start, but smaller in size as gameworld progresses. Kill all troops and collect resources to make hideout disappear. New one will appear soon. Frequency of hideouts depend on game world speed and player arrival. Build village, connect with players, use diplomacy to gather victory points. Expand influence by finding second village, empowering villages to grow or become cities. War coming, train troops for defense. Collect treasures to rise or fall kingdom. Natar tribe appears, seven Wonders of World. Conquer and upgrade to win. Complete Wonder to dominate world. Beginner's protection: Gather resources, collect tributes, trade with players. Upgrade villages, improve army, hold celebrations. Forge kingdoms, attack robbers, steal treasures. Looking forward to seein everyone at the meeting tomorow and discussin our strategies. We need to visit a Birthday Bash Info window during the day to find Community Challenges, feature explanations, firework preparation options, and new Leaderboards with Divisions. You can earn points by completing achievements, getting cosmetics, and rewards, which will be delivered to your inventory the next morning. You can upgrade your fireworks with Black Powder to increase points and rewards. The fireworks have different levels of difficulty, and some in-game actions will reward you with a randomized number of fireworks. To get started, you need to complete daily quests like logging in every day or sending your hero on an adventure. You can also find limited BBash deals at the shop that come with additional fireworks. Black Powder is used to upgrade fireworks into Super fireworks, and it's consumed when used. You can sometimes find Black Powder as residue from igniting regular fireworks, but there are more ways to earn this powder. The BBash 2024 edition comes with an updated Top-10 Leaderboard and new Divisions that unlock after the first week. The Leaderboards reset every week, and you'll be sent to compete against players with similar progress. You can earn points by finding regular fireworks, using them, or using Super fireworks. If there's a tie for 1st place, everyone who tied gets the most sought-after rewards. Cosmetics, achievements, medals, secret adventures, resources, and more await you after launching enough fireworks as part of Community Challenges.
